WAVIN' FLAG! ... Morocco are aiming to become the first team from Africa to reach a Fifa World Cup final.

Can Morocco upset the odds again and conclude their fairytale run in glory?

Morocco's dream of unthinkable

HISTORY-MAKERS Morocco are two wins away from lifting a football World Cup trophy. The team is yet to be beaten at this year's tournament and has conceded just once – an own-goal against Canada in the group stages. Morocco has already gotten the better of big names such as Belgium, Spain and Portugal while drawing against Croatia. But standing between the team and a shot at the trophy is the footballing superpower and reigning champions France, who the Atlas Lions will meet in the semi-finals today.

If they manage to overcome France, coach Walid Regragui's side will then be pitted against either Croatia, runners-up in 2018, or Argentina, 1986 World Cup winners, for world football's biggest prize on Sunday.

Few would have believed it was possible Morocco would still be in the mix at this stage of the World Cup when the tournament kicked off in Qatar on 20 November. But now optimism is surging through Regragui's team and among its supporters, in Qatar, Morocco and across the world.

Can Morocco upset the odds again and conclude their fairytale run in glory? "We have made our people and our continent so happy and proud. When you watch Rocky, you want to support Rocky Balboa and I think we are the Rocky of this World Cup. I think now the world is with Morocco," Regragui said. The Atlas Lions have stunned the footballing world with their magical showing at the World Cup – becoming the first Arab and African country to reach the tournament's last four throughout its 92 years of existence. They topped their group after beating Belgium and Canada and drawing against Croatia before stunning Spain in the last 16 with a dramatic win on penalties. Portugal came and went next, with Youssef En Nesyri's soaring header securing a historic 1-0 victory for his side, sending them through to the semis and sparking an outpouring of joy among supporters scattered throughout the world. Morocco will adopt the same tactics against France as they have throughout the tournament.

France v Morocco 21h00

Fifa World Cup Trivia

- ☛ France are the first reigning champions to reach the World Cup semi-finals since Brazil in 1998. They will be looking to become the first back-to-back finalists since Brazil in 2002. Italy (1934 and 1938) and Brazil (1958 and 1962) are the only nations to win two consecutive World Cups.
- ☛ In 1986, Morocco became the first African and Arab team to reach the round of 16 after topping a group that included England, Poland, and Portugal in the World Cup in Mexico.
- ☛ Morocco have qualified for the Fifa World Cup on six occasions, in 1970, 1986, 1994, 1998, 2018 and 2022.
- ☛ France was one of the four European teams that participated at the inaugural World Cup in 1930 and have appeared in 16 Fifa World Cups.
