"I was not as well prepared as I should have been, but I still managed to run a 100 miles before missing a crucial cut-off time and missing out on running the final 10 miles of the 110 mile mountain race," he says.

"The whole experience of running in the Alps was mind-blowing and a whole lot easier than I feared.

"Recovering from Atank took much longer than I anticipated. My body was ravaged—the almost 10,000 metres of accumulated climbing took its toll, leaving my legs wobbly for weeks afterwards.

"I went off to take on Karlokoj, the last race of the series, with my tank literally on empty," he says.

THRILL-SEEKER ... Dr Nyathi is always on the look-out for a new adventure.

Completed ultra or half-marathons, or triathlons—at the popular Two Oceans Marathon held annually in Cape Town, South Africa.

People often wonder what motivates him to keep running continuously for 30-plus hours over the night on treacherous terrain and often during foul weather.

"The respected doctor, who is equally revered for charity work, says it is not monetary. 'These events are dangerous and lives have been lost,' he cautions.

Together with three friends, Nyathi completed the inaugural Goodwaas Seven Marathon Series, running seven marathons in as many days across Goodwaas lodges of the same member.

"No one runs an ultramarathon for health reasons. If you want to be healthy, go to a park and run a 5km on the weekend," he says.

"When you toe the line for a trail, the only competition is often with yourself. There is a sense of camaraderie among fellow runners, a constant effort to conquer the course together," he says.

"Running an ultra trail race may be an individual event, but it is far from a solo sport. 'There is an army of supporters that make the running easier—the dot followers who sit up all night following your dot on the GPS, tracker holding their breath and hoping you don't get eaten by a random leopard."

"...the friends who run with you on training runs, and if you're lucky, the support crew who show up at checkpoints with a change of socks and your favourite hiking snacks," he says.

Time in to Desert Radio to hear more from Nyathi live on 'The Rush Hour' at 17:00 today.

SERIAL ADVENTURER

There was still just enough in the tank left to see him through the final Atank stretch at Howick, KwaZulu-Natal, despite a series of misadventures – missed flights, missing gear and a faulty GPS – which has become his trademark.

He completed the series – concluding the race with 20 seconds to spare.

"Despite the lingering memory of the Alps weighing heavy on my legs, this run was much easier. Being the last run of the series, I had to do as finish within the allocated 36 hours. I paced myself well enough for a comfortable finish in 30 hours," Nyathi says.

He is one of a handful of runners in Namibia to hold a green number distinction for the Comrades Marathon, awarded to a runner who completes 10 or more runs.

He also has blue-number status – for 10 completed ultra or half-marathons, or triathlons—at the popular Two Oceans Marathon held annually in Cape Town, South Africa.

Completed the inaugural Goodwaas Seven Marathon Series, running seven marathons in as many days across Goodwaas lodges of the same member.

People often wonder what motivates him to keep running continuously for 30-plus hours over the night on treacherous terrain and often during foul weather.

"The respected doctor, who is equally revered for charity work, says it is not monetary. 'These events are dangerous and lives have been lost,' he cautions.

DAPP Namibia

Development Aid from People to People

It seeks qualified applicants for two positions: a Senior Clinical Advisor, and a National TB Coordinator, in the Advanced Community-based Education Centre in Namibia (ACEC) project.

African titles at stake

• HELGE SCHÜTZ

TWO African title fights will be at stake when the MTC Salute Boxing Academy hosts a boxing bonanza at the Safari Hotel on 12 November.

Immanuel Josef will defend his WBO Africa flyweight title for the second time, and faces a tough opponent in Tisetso Modisadife of South Africa.

The 30-year-old Josef is more experienced, with a record of 13 wins, four losses and one draw. He won the WBO title in East London, South Africa, in July last year, when he beat the home town favourite Sihle Jelwana on a fifth round TKO, and then defending it five months later when he beat Muhsin Kizota on a unanimous points decision in Windhoek.

Modisadife turned pro six years ago and has built up a promising record of seven wins and three losses.

Like Josef, he also fought Jelwana, in December 2020, but ended on the losing side as he went down via a fifth round TKO.

Since then he has won two consecutive fights against South African opponents, but he has lost three of his last six fights.

At a press conference yesterday, Josef said his belt was going nowhere.

"I don't have a lot to say, but I'm proud, especially when I see this belt in front of me. This is my baby, and every time I go to sleep I have to look at it, and it's going nowhere," he said.

"I'm going to fight Tisetso from South Africa on 12 November. I just know his name, I've never seen him fighting. I heard he is good, but he hasn't beaten me and I'm going to show him. I'm ready, my sparring partners are busy sharpening me and I've got my coaches who are always there," he said.

Josef called on boxing fans to come out in numbers.

"It's going to be my night, I'm going to steal the show. I'm not even going to predict a knockout or anything, but I'll win. That's the only way I'll be able to move higher up the rankings," he said.

"So I'd like to call upon all the fans to come and witness a great night. Whatever my opponent is coming with it won't help, because I'm going to destroy him, that's a promise and I mean my words," he said.

The other title fight sees Fillemong Nghutenanye defending his WBA Pan Africa flyweight title against Ally Ngwando of Tanzania.

Nghutenanye is still unbeaten after 10 fights with nine wins and one draw, while Ngwando has a record of eight wins, one loss and two draws.

There will be six other fights on the undercard, including Harry Simon Junior, unbeaten after 17 fights, up against Chikondi Makawa of Malawi (30F, 14W, 15L, 1D), while Abed Shikongo (7F, 7W) will take on Simon Shafodino (9F, 2W, 5L, 2D) for the vacant national welterweight title.

Fredrich Ngyhiyolwa of the MTC Salute Boxing Academy thanked Safari Hotel for coming on board to host the event.

"It's quite important that we acknowledge Safari Hotel for coming on board. As we all know, in the past Safari did not host such events, so we should be thankful that they have become a co-partner in meeting the government halfway in reaching its developmental objectives through the sport of boxing," he said.

Tickets are available at N$200 for general seats, N$10 000 for a table of 10, wine and dine, and N$20 000 for a VIP ringside table of 10.

PUBLIC CONSULTATION MEETING MINUTES:

ENVIRONMENTAL SCOPING ASSESSMENT (ESA) FOR THE PROPOSED PROSPECTING & EXPLORATION ACTIVITIES ON EXCLUSIVE PROSPECTING LICENCE (EPL) 8876 LOCATED NORTHWEST OF FRANSPONTEIN, KUNENE REGION.

Date: Monday, 7 November 2022

Time: 10h00

Venue: Fransfontein Settlement Office Boardroom (under Kunene Regional Council)

The public consultation meeting was attended by eighteen people, including an environmental consultant and an archaeologist from Excel Dynamic Solutions (Pty) Ltd (EDS) - Please refer to the attached attendance register.

INTRODUCTION AND WELCOMING REMARKS

The meeting was opened by the environmental consultant by introducing the team, and stating the purpose of the consultation meeting with the parties affected by the proposed prospecting and exploration activities on EPL 8876. The meeting attendance register was circulated for the attendees to sign and add their contact details, so that they could be added to the list of interested and affected parties (I&APs) and receive further information on the ESA process.

MEETING AGENDA AND PRESENTATION

The agenda of the meeting included the following main points:

2.1 Brief Description of the Project

Mr Mandume Leonard explained the EIA process to the attendees, and the reason for their invitation to the meeting (with reference to the Environmental Management Act (EMA) No. 7 of 2007 and its 2012 Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) Regulations on Public Consultation). Mr Leonard further explained the importance of required ECC and their (public's) role in the EIA process.

2.3 Presentation of Potential Project Impacts

To ensure transparency towards the public and understanding of proposed works by the attendees, the Environmental Consultants also presented the pre-identified potential positive & negative environmental and social impacts.

2.4 Public Open Discussion (Interactive Session)

Mr Leonard provided the meeting attendees the opportunity to raise their concerns/issues and or comment on the proposed project activities. The issues and comments recorded are presented in Table 1 below.

Table 1: Comments and issues raised during the public consultation meeting, 07th of November 2022

Comment/ issue No.	Commenter name & issue / comment / question	Response and name of responder:
1.	Commenter 1: Is the representative of Salute Trading present in this meeting?	Mr Mandume Leonard (ML): Unfortunately, the representative is not present here with us, he could not make it to the meeting.
2.	Commenter 2: Are you doing everything on behalf of the proponent?	ML: No. We as an environmental consultant company, we are only appointed to conduct the EIA process on behalf of the proponent.
3.	Commenter 1: Where is Salute Trading CC from? Do they have a track record in mining?	ML: Salute Trading CC is a Namibian owned company. They do not have a track record in mining. This is a company that just applied for an EPL at the Ministry of Mines and Energy to be granted an ECC, which is subjected to an EIA.

Comment/ issue No.	Commenter name & issue / comment / question	Response and name of responder:
4.	Commenter 3: You mentioned local employment opportunities. If so, here is a suggestion: In your reports, please indicate that the employees for these projects must be vetted because we do not want known thieves working on our farms.	ML: The proponent is most likely to hire semi-skilled and general labourers from the nearest town to the site. Thank you for the suggestion, we will incorporate it in our reports.
5.	Commenter 4: Next time you have a meeting in these areas, all the Interested and affected parties must be present and informed on time because I was only informed by my neighbor about the meeting.	ML: Well noted. Our office usually communicates with the Namibia Agricultural Union (NAU) to assist us with a list of contacts of the interested and affected farmers so we share this information but as per their organization's policy their office does not disclose these details, so we have to find other means to get this information to the farmers like through the help of relevant authority offices, newspapers and using site notices.
6.	Commenter 5: Is there a compensation agreement for affected farmers?	ML: During the prospecting phase, to access the farms where the EPL lays, the proponent need to come up with an access agreement with the landowners on the terms and conditions of their operations on the farmer's land.
7.	Commenter 6: I suggest that an archaeological assessment must be conducted and documented on some of this farms before any prospecting is done.	ML: Noted. Usually, once we are done with the consultation meeting, our next step is to do site visits on the farms that are covered by the EPL and this includes the biophysical and archaeological assessments.

FINAL REMARKS AND CONCLUSION OF THE MEETING

Mr Leonard thanked the attendees for their crucial input through comments and raising their concerns. He indicated to the attendees that all their comments, concerns and inputs had been noted down for consideration, and for addressing in the Environmental Scoping Assessment (ESA) Report, as well as incorporating their recommendations into the draft EMP.

Furthermore, Mr. Leonard informed the attendees that the draft meeting minutes, Environmental Assessment Report and Environmental Management Plan (EMP) will be shared with them for their review and further comments. These documents will be made available through emails provided on the attendance register.

Once the review of the reporting is completed, the documents will be finalized and submitted to the Environmental Commissioner at the Department of Environmental Affairs and Forestry (DEAF) for evaluation and consideration for an ECC.

The meeting adjourned at 11h30
