Brighton stunned on European debut by AEK Athens

Brighton's eagerly awaited European bow fell flat as Greek heavyweights AEK Athens snatched Roberto Soriano's own goal with a 3-2 Europa League group stage victory. The Spaniard twice pegged AEK back after Dimitris Saliba and Mijat Gacinovic had taken advantage of Lewis Dunk's absence through injury to score from first-half set pieces. But, even with 15 minutes' injury-time, Brighton had no answer after substitute Fouzi Paoulis converted a third after 94 minutes. Nicklas Eliasson was given too much time to cross after Tariq Lamptey had slipped as AEK launched a speedy counter-attack, Paoulis applying the finish.

It meant Jose Pedro's unique double ended up counting for nothing. Distasteful, it is not unusual for the video assistant referee to intervene to award penalties. Remarkably, this time it happened twice, on both occasions after the former Watford forward had gone down – he was booked for diving the first time.

Brighton's £30-million record signing took both penalties, twice sending the goalkeeper the wrong way.

Brighton's long journey just before the team came out, the stadium announcer called on the Brighton fans to "drink it in".

It is barely 25 years since the club were nearly relegated from the Football League, to the final match over to be played at their beloved Goldstone Ground.

When the club has advanced to its remarkable.

Thanks to the vision of owner Tony Blom, who was watching from the stands, they have a superb stadium,

Dimitris Saliba (right) stunned Brighton by scoring the first goal in a European match featuring the Seagulls a state-of-the-art training ground and one of the most attractive and progressive teams in the Premier League.

Now they have Europe, with the month-waiting visit of former Champions League winners Ajax to come next month and Marseille to follow in December.

Club executive Paul Barber is fond of saying Brighton are looking forward, not back but, despite the disappointment of defeat on the night, if ever there was a night for nostalgia, this was it. Images of the past were played across the stadium – even, it felt, as a thank you to the fans who stood with the club in these dark days and are now getting their reward.

Dunk's absence proves key

Swifty for Brighton, one of the key components in their rise from the Championship to the brink of the top four was missing.

Dunk must have known, but everyone else, that AEK's two first-half goals were available and had he been on the pitch rather than in the dug-out, Brighton would have had a far better chance of avoiding them.

Alex Iuliu was not widely at fault but the sight of the Brazilian, a Chelsea signing last summer, getting booked for dragging back Leon Garcia just inside the Brighton half as he headed the Trinidad and Tobago international was about the run-away from him was further evidence of what Dunk's absence meant.

On his full debut, ex-Man City star Steve Finnan – whose last European appearance was against Manchester United in this competition last year – drew an excellent first-half corner out of Cezar Stankevicius.

When the game was still there for Brighton to win, Jose Pedro disappointed in not completing his hat-trick after beating the outside trap and ranning clear but firing his shot straight at Stankevicius.

Paoulis' cross had Brighton's best opportunity to level for a third time but again, the AEK keeper was equal to the challenge.
