PUBLIC NOTICE

SCOPING AND ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT FOR SMALL SCALE MINING HOTSPOTS ON COMMERCIAL FARMS: OTJOMBOJO AND OMAPYU IN ERONGO REGION

There are ±70 Mining Claims, registered to and worked by several Small Scale Miners (SSM) in search of semi-precious minerals on the aforementioned farms. Although mining activities have been taking place for many years in these areas, this has been done in the absence of Environmental Management Plans (EMPs) and Environmental Clearance Certificates (ECCs). However, in terms of the Environmental Management Act (Act No 7 of 2007), and the Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) Regulations of 2012, all mining and quarrying operations are listed as activities for which EIAs are mandatory.

To this end, an Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) scoping study is being conducted to be followed by the formulation of Environmental Management Plans (EMP) for each farm. The EIA and EMPs will allow the SSM to apply and obtain ECC for their respective Mining Claims from MEFT.

Interested and Affected Parties (IAPs) are hereby invited to register and to submit their comments, interests, concerns and or inputs with respect to the EIA being conducted. A Background Information Document (BID) is available. The proponent of the study is the Small-scale Mining Division of the Ministry of Mines & Energy, courtesy of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP).

Meetings: Information sharing meetings with the SSM, stakeholders and IAPs will be held on Friday, 2 October 2020, at Farm Omapyu from 09h00 to 12h00 and Farm Otjimbojo from 14h00 to 16h00

Contact details: Comments and or inputs should be sent via email, fax or WhatsApp not later than 10 October 2020 to:

3 things that will make every freelancer's dream come true

If you're a freelancer and you're wondering what the best way to improve your worth is, take a look at these quick tips.

Although it may be difficult to decide on how much to initially charge when you start as a freelancer, there is a way to ensure your skills and time carry weight. Remember, the more valuable your work and skills are, the more money you can ask for.

Get the relevant qualification(s)

There's a difference between calling yourself a photographer and actually studying to become a photographer, for example. If you would like to make money from a hobby, like photography, get the relevant qualification for the job. Without anything to back up your skills and your fee, people would wonder about the quality of your work. Do yourself and your career a favour and become qualified before putting yourself out there.

Don't settle for being ordinary

Doing something a little extra for your clients could count in your favour in the long term. Try doing little bits of work for free, submit your work a few days before deadline or suggest cost-effective alternatives for projects. Your clients will soon see you as part of the family; someone who is interested in more than just making a quick buck. They'll then want to use you for more projects and possibly refer you to their contacts. Consider the long term when trying to build up a client database.

Be professional – it's your business

If you're considering going freelance, you have to think as a professional businessman/woman. You're building a business and a brand that your potential clients must be able to trust and rely on. Act professionally and stay in touch with clients. Nothing screams unreliable more than someone who does not respond to emails or answer phone calls. You have to perfect your client service skills and always be mindful of how your brand is being represented. Satisfied clients will recommend you to their contacts, friends and family, and before you know it, you'll have a wide network of happy, paying clients, which equals more cash in your bank. -careers 24

Ole Gunnar Solskjaer hopes Eric Bailly return adds steel to shaky United defence

MANCHESTER – Ole Gunnar Solskjaer is hoping the return of Eric Bailly will shore up Manchester United's leaky defence after they shipped three goals in their Premier League opener against Crystal Palace.

United's centre-back partnership of Harry Maguire and Victor Lindelof came under fire following their display against Palace, with the 3-1 defeat highlighting the club's need for a more dynamic presence in the heart of the defence.

A knee injury limited Bailly to 11 appearances last season but the Ivorian looked assured in United's 3-0 victory against Luton Town in the League Cup on Tuesday.

"Eric is fit again, a big big plus and looking forward to seeing him develop and play more games. We've been waiting him to be fit and play more regularly," Solskjaer told reporters ahead of Saturday's trip to Brighton and Hove Albion.

"I think last season proved to us how we can defend at our best, last week wasn't fantastic, we conceded sloppy goals, but I think our defensive record from last season with Eric and Harry shows how good a partnership they were."

Saturday's game will be the first of a double header against Brighton, with United set to visit the Amex Stadium for their League Cup fourth-round tie next week.

"We have to take it one game at a time, the Premier League first and all our focus is on that. We had a bad start last week and we want kick on and play a better game," Solskjaer added.

Introduction:

Driving en-route the Namibian west, you are embraced by an array of mountains, scenically drawing you in to experience the rare beauty the landscape holds. Nestled within this auspicious terrain, you will find Dinaledi lodge and Camping Site, positioned a mere stone's throw from the famous Spitzkoppe.

Dinaledi offers luxury chalets with panoramic views of the landscape, inviting the outside in. From your bed you can enjoy the intimacy of unhindered sights of the river, carefully crafted landscape and the clear sound of nothing, but animals in the distance.

The sparsely positioned campsites provide an even closer ambiance to nature, with just enough necessary amenities (a built in braai, electricity point, ablutions) to make your stay comfortable.

The Lodge has a restaurant and pool area available to all guests, bringing fine dining and relaxation to your fingertips.
