Carrick slams 'myth' over claims Ronaldo can't press

Michael Carrick believes Cristiano Ronaldo will flourish in the intense pressing system preferred by Manchester United interim manager's Ralf Rangnick.

It has been suggested United striker Ronaldo does not have the qualities required to thrive in Rangnick's workaholic game-plan. Rangnick has been hired as United boss until the end of the season after the sacking of Ole Gunnar Solskjaer. With the German still awaiting a work permit, Carrick remains in caretaker charge for Arsenal's visit to Old Trafford on Thursday.

And he has no doubts his 36-year-old Portugal star will be able to cope with Rangnick's tactics.

"Maybe it is a myth," Carrick said when asked about the perception Ronaldo might be unwilling to press opponents.

"He's played in enough teams over the years and been successful to play in a variety of ways.

"He has kept scoring goals for every team he has played for and I am sure he will continue to score goals, no doubt about that.

"Players adapt anyway. You've got to have skills for different styles. Ralf has obviously got a terrific pedigree over a long period of time and had success with that."

Carrick fuelled some of the debate about Ronaldo when he named the former Juventus star on the bench and then used pressing tactics in Sunday's 1-1 draw at Chelsea.

Ronaldo stormed straight down the tunnel at fulltime, sparking claims he was unhappy with Carrick, but the caretaker boss said: "It seems like it's a big decision but, really, between us, and personally, it wasn't.

"If you ask Cristiano - the way he responded was perfection really.

"He was around the dressing room, he was incredible, he supported the players. At halftime I went in to do my team talk and he was warming up for 10 minutes, ready to come on second half.

"A lot can be made of it and (people are) trying to spin it in a negative way but behind the scenes it is very different."

Reviving Spurs is Conte's 'biggest challenge'

Antonio Conte says getting troubled Tottenham back on track will be the biggest challenge of his glittering managerial career. Conte has quickly realised the size of the task he faces to revive Tottenham after a difficult first four weeks in charge.

The Italian was left chastened by an embarrassing Europa Conference League defeat to Slovenian minnows NS Mura last week.

And Conte, a title winner with Chelsea, Juventus and Inter Milan, conceded before Thursday's Premier League game against Brentford that he will have to work overtime to turn the tide in north London.

"Biggest challenge, yes. But as I said in Mura, I'm not scared about this," he said.

"I have a lot of enthusiasm. When I arrive here, I enjoy the situation. I enjoy to work with the players, I enjoy to speak with the club, I enjoy to create a good base.

"Now the most important thing is this - to create a good base and then to build something important.

"We need a bit of time but I'm sure we can improve a lot and give satisfaction to our fans.

"This is a big challenge for the club. This is a big challenge for the players. For everybody."

When Conte won the Premier League with Chelsea in 2017, Tottenham finished second under Mauricio Pochettino.

Conte believes Tottenham are paying the price for not overhauling Pochettino's squad earlier.

"The club, in the last years, has been slipping," he said. "If I compare Tottenham to when I was in Chelsea, Tottenham was very competitive, a really strong team.

"And I think that to lose important players or someone became old and then to have a change of generation, I think Tottenham now is paying a bit of this.

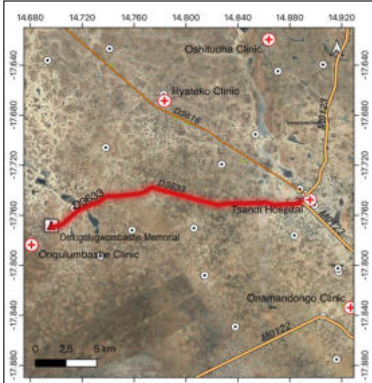

"Now we have to create, to start again. To think that we have to create a solid base and then to build.

"Because if we don't have a solid base, it's impossible to build something important."

Chelsea-United tie headlines Premier League action

The 12-point gap between Premier League leaders Chelsea and Manchester United after just 12 games finally cost Ole Gunnar Solskjaer his job as the Red Devils manager, but the Blues provide the inspiration for what United could still achieve this season.

Less than a year ago, Chelsea also sacked a former legendary player turned manager when Frank Lampard was dismissed from Stamford Bridge.

Four months later, the same squad were crowned champions of Europe thanks to a rapid transformation by Thomas Tuchel.

That progress has continued on this season as Chelsea look to break the grip Manchester City and Liverpool have had on the title race for the past four seasons.

Tuchel's men hold a three-point lead over City at the top of the table with Liverpool one further back.

Despite still missing the presence of record signing Romelu Lukaku through injury, Chelsea have hit top form since returning from the November international break.

Leicester were swept aside 3-0 at the King Power last weekend before Juventus suffered their biggest ever Champions League defeat in a 4-0 drubbing on Tuesday.

"It's a pleasure to be at the club every single day and to be a part of this team," said Tuchel after his 50th match in charge in midweek.

"They have a fantastic attitude, determined and hungry, so we want to keep this energy and atmosphere in the group.

"The challenges are coming and it's good because it keeps us going."

One of Tuchel's biggest coaching influences could soon be lining up against him in the Premier League with United reportedly set to hire Ralf Rangnick as the club's interim manager until the end of the season.

Any deal is not expected to be completed before the sides meet at Stamford Bridge on Sunday with Michael Carrick to take caretaker charge, as he did for a 2-0 win over Villarreal on Tuesday that secured United's place in the last 16 of the Champions League.

"All my energy and my mind at the moment is on Sunday," said Carrick.

"Everything else is not for me to worry about and get involved with because I need to win a game of football and that is what I am looking forward to doing."

HOWE HOPING TO LEAD NEWCASTLE

Newcastle sank to the bottom of the table last weekend after a 3-3 draw with Brentford in their first match since Eddie Howe was appointed as manager.

Howe had to watch the game from a hotel room in isolation after testing positive for coronavirus.

The former Bournemouth boss is hoping to lead his new side for the first time at Arsenal on Saturday as long as he returns a negative test.

Sold to the Saudi sovereign wealth fund in October, Newcastle's new wealth has counted for little so far as they remain without a win all season.

The Magpies are fortunate to just be five points adrift of safety, but can't rely on waiting for the January transfer window to solve their problems with eight league games to come before the new year.

PATIENCE WITH BENITEZ WEARING THIN

Everton are the only side in the league in worse form than Newcastle as the Toffees have taken just two points from their last six games.

Many in the Everton support were opposed to the appointment of Rafael Benitez as manager before a ball was kicked this season due to his close connections with rivals Liverpool.

A promising start quietened Benitez's critics, but they are quickly resurfacing.

Benitez badly needs a win away at Brentford to avoid a frosty reception when Liverpool come to Goodison for the Merseyside derby on Wednesday.

FIXTURES

Postal Address..... P.O. BOX 1168, Tsandi Email..... ushonamartha@gmail.com
Town..... Tsandi Phone Number..... 0812890774

Does the proposed project affect you in any way?

Yes, this is the road I use to visit the heritage site, to visit community projects & attend community meetings. I also use this road to travel to my house residence.

Do you have any points of concern or support regarding the proposed projects?
If "yes", please briefly list these in point format:

YES / NO

Yes My concern is that the project information received indicates that the gravel road will be upgraded to Low Volume Bituminous standard. My concern is that ~~about~~ this road be ~~strong~~ enough to serve its purpose on the long run, there are many vehicles using the road, EDUENTS and many events take place at the heritage site. It is a busy road, it is also sometimes affected by rain water.

Do you wish this project to proceed?

YES / NO

Comment: ~~Yes~~ I expect the heritage site to grow in the future. Moreover, the heritage site is already used for ab Anja commemoration, burial of heroes, visit cattle posts, schools, clinics, etc. therefore the quality of the road must be well considered.
