White Line is a company based in Milano, Italy and was founded in 2001 by the Panterani brothers. The brothers started to invest their resources in tanning exotic leathers and purchased a tannery in Santa Croce Sull'Arno (PI) and in 2018 a new tannery plant in San Miniato (PI)

This strategic business venture has proved to be a huge success. Today, White Line plays a vital role in the exotic leather market for the fashion industry. Our leather is primarily sold to manufactures of garments, footwear, handbags and other leather goods. We deal with clients across the globe.

One of the skins we specialize is the Niloticus skin (Nile crocodile skin) that originate from Southern Africa. As a result, we have clients based in Southern Africa of which Mwaka Integrated Farming CC is one of the clients we would be interested in buying from.

White Line is interested to buy up to 10,000 bigger size skins per year (40 – 60cm on the belly).

In terms of pricing of skins, it all revolves around quality of skins. Better prices are paid for better quality skins where lesser prices will be paid for lower quality.

White Line travel to Southern Africa on a regular basis to inspect skins for our tannery.

We look forward to working together with Mwaka Integrated Farming CC to establish a good lasting relationship.

Attach our prices as per Annexure A.
