

Jaco Van Zyl

Good afternoon, thank you for your email, just a few things, I do not see the access road that the miners will plan on using, there is no indication on whose farm this will fall, do we have any idea about water use, noise pollution that will affect the tourism and also dust as it is directly upwind when the South westerly blows every afternoon? Then this Friday is very short notice and to have a meeting onsite (did I ready correct there in the mountains) it means it is only accessible for people with 4x4 vehicles, excluding a lot of participants?

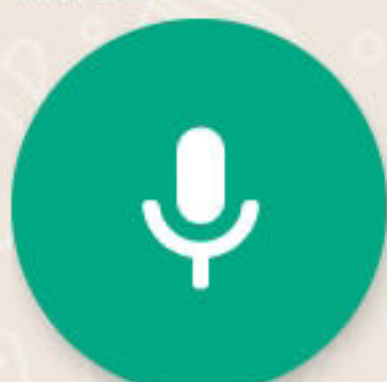

1:57 PM

Thank you for your time response. If the public meeting fail to get more than 4 participants we will choose Affected parties including yourself. We will notify you every stage before we launch te application. I will make the reports available for you to have detailed information to who is the farm owner and proposed access roads.

We can go through the whole process once you registered yourself through filling out the questionnaire and send

THE OLUSHANDJA WATER WORKS UPGRADE AND EXTENSION PROJECT

Outrun Consultants cc hereby gives notice to all potential Interested and Affected Parties (I&APs), that an application for Environmental Clearance certificate will be made to the Environmental Commissioner in terms of the Environmental Management Act (No. 7 of 2007) as follows:

Proponent: Namwater

Financier: Government of the Republic of Namibia

Environmental Assessment Practitioner: Outrun Consultants cc

Project Description: NamWater intends to upgrade the Olushandja water treatment works within the Central Northern Water Supply Area (CNWSA). The Olushandja Water Works (OLWW) is located along the Calueque to Ohakwati canal and treats water from the Calueque Dam in Angola to supply potable water to the following Settlements in Northern Namibia; Ruarana, Etunda, Ovesi, and Tsandi.

The OLWW consists of two (2) treatment plants, a batch plant constructed in the 1970s and a Slow Sand Filtration plant commissioned in 2000. The products water from the Batch plant occasionally has turbidity above 1 NTU. The Slow Sand Filtration plant was built for experimental purposes to determine whether the roughing filters and slow filtration process will produce the best treatment option to handle raw water in the Northern Area and eventually provide good quality water at minimal cost. At the moment the Water Resources Management Act 11 of 2013 (WRMA, 2013), stipulates the acceptable limit for drinking water as 0.5 NTU. The technology used at OLWW is outdated and NamWater's concern is that OLWW is not able to produce product water quality of 0.5 NTU as required by the WRMA, 2013's Guidelines and Standards for Potable Drinking Water. This has necessitated the upgrade and expansion of the OLWW. The upgrade and development of a water infrastructure is a listed activity that require Environmental Clearance by the Ministry of Environment, Forestry & Tourism (MEFT). In accordance to the requirements of the Environmental Management Act (No. 7 of 2007) and the Environmental Assessment Regulations No. 12 of 2012, NamWater has appointed Outrun Consultants cc as an Independent Environmental Assessment Practitioner to undertake a detailed Environmental and Social Impact Assessment (ESIA) and to obtain an Environmental Clearance Certificate (ECC) for the envisaged development project.

Project Location: The Project is located to the North West of Ohakwati in Oshanaati Region (Map is provided in the BID).

fantasy worlds respectively. BookTok fans aren't just market followers; they are also market-makers. Romantasy (a portmanteau of "romance" and "fantasy") authors like Sarah J. Maas and Rebecca Yarros have outsourced their merchandising to fans, taking a cut of the royalties. In my research I've found these authors have leveraged the popularity of unofficial merchandise on social media platforms to increase their official merchandise catalogues and revenue. Fan cultures have a range of influences on everyday life, from swapping friendship bracelets at Taylor Swift concerts to attending romantasy-inspired balls. Fandom might be shared online, but its effects are felt in person. The influence of millennial women in fandom Fans who were girls in the era of Harry Potter, The Hunger Games and Twilight are now the women who have powered the success of Barbie and the Eras Tour. The shift in fandom has been led by adult women who have been honing their fan skills since girlhood. They, in turn, stand on the shoulders of the early female fans who read romance fiction back when it was even more stigmatised and wrote the earliest fan-fiction. Now they buy their daughters tickets to Taylor Swift and cheer them on as their own girls take on new fan roles.
