Arsenal have moved closer to reaching an agreement for Brighton and England defender Ben White, 23, in a deal that could be worth around £50m. (Athletic)

Liverpool could bid for French superstar Kylian Mbappe as the 23-year-old forward has told Paris St-Germain he wants to leave the club this summer. (Star)

Aston Villa are confident they can fend off interest from Manchester City, Chelsea and Manchester United to keep a hold of England midfielder Jack Grealish, 25. (Athletic)

Grealish's representatives, however, believe they have got the go-ahead for him to leave Villa, which could see him make a £100m move to Manchester City. (Sun)

Dean Smith's side also have no interest in selling Scotland midfielder John McGinn this summer, with Liverpool believed to be considering a bid for the 26-year-old. (Express and Star)

Liverpool are monitoring Portugal and Lille midfielder Renato Sanches as a replacement for Gini Wijnaldum. The 23-year-old helped the French side win the Ligue 1 title last season. (HTC)

Liverpool have begun talks with PSV Eindhoven about a deal for 22-year-old Dutch forward Donyell Malen, who is expected to cost about £3.5m. (Sky Sport Germany, via Express)

Chelsea are the most likely side to bid Sevilla defender Jules Koundi, 22. The Frenchman has been attracting interest from Manchester United, but now it seems the west Londoners are at the front of the queue. (ABC Sevilla, in Spanish)

Brighton, Burnley, West Ham and newly promoted Norwich City have all been linked with Barcelona's 30-year-old Danish forward Martin Braithwaite. (Sport - in Spanish)

French defender William Saliba, 20, is again poised to leave Arsenal on loan and has attracted a number of suitors across Europe, including Nice when he had a spell last season. Newcastle United, Southampton, French clubs Rennes, Marseille, Lille, German side Bayer Leverkusen as well as two unnamed clubs in Italy are also said to be interested. (Footie news - in French)

West Ham have tabled a £17m offer for Fiorentina's 23-year-old defender Nikola Milenkovic, but the bid is a long way short of what the Serie A club want for the Serbia international. (Calcio mercato - in Italian)

Arsenal manager Mikel Arteta has made Rennes midfielder Eduardo Camavinga his primary target this summer. The 18-year-old only has one year left on his current deal, and Arteta is willing to let four players go in order to pay for the Frenchman. (Express)

Burnley are set to make a bid for Werder Bremen's Czech Republic international goalkeeper Jiri Pavlenka, 29. (Bild - in German)

Leeds United could make a move for Blackburn Rovers' 22-year-old forward Ben Brereton following his impressive performances for Chile at the Copa America. (Rediff, via Mail)

Belgium's 'X factor' proves the difference as Kevin de Bruyne shines

Belgium needed their 'X factor' substitutions to save them against Denmark and book their place in the last 16 of Euro 2020 after being 'put to the test' for the first time in a while.

They were nowhere near their best against Denmark at Euro 2020 - but Kevin de Bruyne set up one and scored the other, changing the game in a 2-1 win.

The top-ranked side in the world were downed behind at the break on an emotional evening at 25,000 fans at Parken Stadium paid tribute to Christian Eriksen, who is recovering from a cardiac arrest.

"I was looking for the X factor." De Bruyne came on at half-time and turned the game around, in his first appearance since suffering a fractured nose and eye socket in May's Champions League final.

He set up the equaliser with a brilliant unselfish touch to beat two defenders before laying the ball on a player Thorgan Hazard.

Manchester City midfielder De Bruyne then fired in an excellent winner after a nice pass from fellow star substitute Eden Hazard, Thorgan's brother.

Real Madrid's Hazard and De Bruyne (nine and eight assists respectively) have now set up more goals in major tournaments since 2014 than any other European player.

"Wow, I was looking for X factor and boy did Belgium deliver that," said ex-England international Karen Carney on BBC Radio 5 Live.

"The big players at the big moments stepped up. That is the difference of world class players. They have the composure and confidence."

"The second half is just a case of bringing on quality in De Bruyne - big players just make such a difference. I can't praise the tactics, swift change from Martinez enough. That was the game of the tournament."

Belgium booked their place in the last 16 thanks to the win, despite only having six shots to Denmark's 21.

"He can get to Ronaldo & Messi level."

Ronald Lukaku, who scored twice as Belgium beat Russia 3-0 in their opening game, was involved in the build-up for both goals - and was named UEFA's man of the match.

Former Arsenal midfielder Jack

Whelan told BBC Radio 5 Live: "All the teams with a chance of winning have that player like Lukaku. He wants to get better and is still young enough to get to the levels of Ronaldo and Messi."

On BBC One, ex-England captain Alan Shearer said: "Belgium went down and it could have gone on at half-time. They completely changed the game."

Former Netherlands and Chelsea starlet Jeremy Royal Hoodbink, talking about De Bruyne's assist, said: "What a player. He is so calm, always in control. It's not posing that."

The Belgians had trailed to Sweden's earlier after just 99 seconds, the second quickest European Championship goal ever.

BBC Radio 5 Live commentator Conor McNamara said: "The greatest credit you can pay Belgium is that they played against a 12th man."

"We were always one step behind."

Several of Belgium's players as well as the manager spoke about how difficult they found the game afterwards.

Defender Jan Vertonghen said: "In the first half we were uncomfortable. We were always one step behind, it seemed. But then De Bruyne, Axel Witsel and Eden Hazard came on which just changed the game. They bring extra quality, we don't have to replace anyone."

that." Bow Martinez said: "It's been a while since we've had been put to the test like this. The first half the players seemed shell shocked but they have the experience to turn a game around."

Star striker Lukaku said: "We played domestic, me included. We have to be honest about that. We didn't bring the quality that was expected from us" but would it should've been negative."

De Bruyne spoke about his mental side notes for his goal.

"I was happy, of course, but I respect people here too much," he said. "I went to the part of the pitch where Eriksen collapsed on Saturday and I stayed calm."
