Good day Ms. Shikongo

Eden Cremations is a new registered company situated in Walvis Bay and will start a cremation service for the Namibian people.

We are now 95% completed with our project and have followed all protocols that needed to be done. We have received our Fitness Certificate from the Municipality after following all these protocols. The Ministry of Health and Social Services have also done their inspection and gave us their approval. We were told to inform MET and I have spoken to MS. Chaze Sibeya from the Walvis Bay department. Mr. John Hamba (Windhoek) send me the Annexure List of Activities that may not be undertaken without an EIA Clearance Certificate. Chapter (11) Paragraph 11.2 stipulates that only Cemeteries need to have an EIA done. I was informed that all is okay for us to continue.

Ms. Shikongo, we at Eden Cremations just want to make sure that all the above is in order and I am still waiting from your department for my official letter that stipulates that all procedures are followed.

We will have our official opening on March the 1st. The mayor of Walvis Bay will inaugurate our new crematorium. You will receive your invitation in good time. Please feel free to look up our website at www.edencremations.com

Have a lovely day

Regards

EDEN
