TODAY IS...

INTERNATIONAL DAY FOR THE ELIMINATION OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE IN CONFLICT

Every year on June 19th, the International Day for the Elimination of Sexual Violence in Conflict commemorates for conflict-related sexual violence. The day also raises the voices and stories of sexual violence around the world. Women and girls are the main victims of conflict-related sexual violence. Men and boys are also subject to it, as well. Unfortunately, many countries do not have laws or policies that protect them. This is especially true for women and girls in conflict zones. When they do, they are often not enforced. Just 46% of countries have laws that protect women from sexual violence.
