

GEORGE MUKOYA

(named after a famous hunter of elephants, who was a particularly good shot and tracker.)

Registered	September 2005
Address	George Mukoya Conservancy P.O. Box 2433, Rundu
Telephone	066-256145/146
Approximate population	2,000
Main home languages	Rugciriku
Area	486 square kilometers
Region	Kavango
Geographical features	Northern Kalahari Sandveld with annual rainfall of 500–600 mm. Inland of Okavango River.
Unusual or important features	Located directly on northern border of Khaudum Park, adjacent to Muduva Nyangana
Major wildlife resources	Elephant, Wild dog, Leopard, Kudu, Eland, Steenbok, and woodland birdlife
Management	Management committee of ten (four women and six men). Ten staff are employed (eight men and two women)
Enterprises	Crafts and thatching grass provide individual incomes. Conservancy income generated through trophy hunting
Support agencies	MET, MAWE, DoF, DED, Ministry of Fisheries, Basin Wide Forum, NNF (lead support NGO), ICEMA

