SCHEDULE

BOUNDARY DESCRIPTION OF CUMA COMMUNITY FOREST: KAVANGO REGION

The Cuma Community Forest is located in the constituency of Rundu Rural West of the Kavango Region and belongs to Shambyu tribal area. The community forest covers an area of 11 550 ha and is situated about 30km south east of Rundu. It can be accessed on road D3400 leading to Ncaute up to Ncuncuni and from there south-eastwards on road D3401 to Cuma.

The north-western corner of point A of the community forest is reached about 6 km from the turnoff in Ncuncuni. The northern boundary follows the road D3401 to Cuma at point B and proceeds south-eastwards along a bush road passing at point C until the fence of Matapi farm is reached at point D. From there, the boundary continues south-eastwards to point E for about 8 km and meets with the northern boundary of Ncaute Community Forest that marks the south-eastern boundary at point F. The southern boundary extends for about 12 km and is at the same time the northern boundary of Ncaute Community Forest. From the south-eastern boundary at point G, the western boundary extends for about 13.5 km and meets again road D3401 at point A. All the boundaries are demarcated and trees alongside are painted with yellow colour.

SCHEDULE

BOUNDARY DESCRIPTION OF GCWATJINGA COMMUNITY FOREST: KAVANGO REGION

The Gwatjinga Community Forest is located in the constituency of Rundu Rural west of the Kavango Region and belongs to the Shambyu tribal area. The community forest covers an area of 31897ha and is situated about 80km south of Rundu in the Omatako vally. It can be accessed on the gravel road D3427 leading to Ncaute afterwards continuing on the small road D3425 leading to Kanovlei. The community forest area is situated on the eastern side fo the Omatako between the villages on Gcigco and Naingopo. The northern and the southern boundaries are demarcated and painted with yellow colour. The road D3425 marks the western boundary. To the east Gwatjinga Community Forest borders the private small-scale farms demarcated for the Ministry of Land and Resettlement. Private farmers will demarcate the boundaries when they establish their farms. Inside the community forest exists a farm established in the colonial times which is not part of the community forest.

The north-western corner (point A) of the community forest is reached about 5.1km from Ncaute where to bush road to Gwasha turns off road D3425. Following the bush road to Gwasha (point B) is reached after 2.9km where another bush road diverts eastwards to a farm. The north-eastern corner (point C) can be found after following the bush road for about 6.8km. The eastern boundary of the community forest is at the same time the western boundary of the small-scale farms (each approximately 2500ha) established and allocated by the Ministry of lands and Resettlement. Points D to H are corners of these farms. From north to south the following farms have shared boundary with the community forest: Farm No. 1563, No. 1562, No.1547, No. 1546 and No.1529. From the south-eastern corner (point I) a cutline goes westwards for 17.3km until it meets again the road D3425 at the south-western corner (point K). The southern boundary of the community forest is also considered as the community boundary between Gwatjinga and Ncushe. Road D3425 forms
