

Mozambique: Man arrested in possession of lions' teeth and claws

1:33 CAT | 18 Apr 2023

Image: Domingo

A 38-year-old citizen is currently detained in the city of Beira, Sofala province, accused of killing and possession of prohibited species.

At the time of his arrest, the suspect had four lion teeth and 14 lion claws in his possession.

The spokesman for the National Criminal Investigation Service (SERNIC) in Sofala, Alfeu Siteo, said today that this institution is working to find the others involved in the crime.

Source: Domingo