

NINE POACHING CASES RECORDED SINCE JANUARY

Posted by Intern | Mar 15, 2019 | Environment

The Ministry of Environment has recorded nine poaching incidents since January this year, six involving rhinos and three involving elephants, a government spokesperson said last week, as reported by Xinhua.

Ministry of Environment and Tourism, Romeo Muyunda, said the poaching incidents mainly occurred in private and custodian farms; no poaching was recorded in the national parks.

In 2018, 57 rhinos and 26 elephants were poached, with 120 suspected poachers being arrested.
