From 17 to 23 February two rhino horns were seized.

Three suspected rhino poachers in Etosha National Park, Messrs. Festus Simon, Johannes Valombola and Ephraim Malakia were arrested on February 18 at Okahao. Police say two rhino horns, two .303 hunting rifles, 30 cartridges and a vehicle were confiscated.

They are charged with the illegal hunting of a specially protected game (a rhino), illegal entry into a wildlife park, the illegal possession of firearms and ammunition without a license, and conspiracy to hunt a rhino.

According to the wildlife crime report of the Namibian Police for Protected Resources (PRU) and the Intelligence and Investigation Unit of the Ministry of the Environment and Tourism, a total of 13 suspected wildlife criminals were arrested last week and five new cases were brought.

Last week, a total of one corpse, 58 cartridges, five firearms and one vehicle were confiscated.

The body was apparently in the possession of Messrs. Last Wednesday, Joseph Nekome and Mpepo Mauze found at Kahenge.

Three suspected smugglers of food magazines were released on bail in the Windhoek Magistrate's Court in Katutura last week.

Messrs. Mario Simataa and Davison Malambo appeared in court last Monday on charges of illegal trafficking in two food magazines. They received bail of N $ 2,000 each and their case was postponed to March 17 for plea and trial purposes.

Mr. Andreas Hausiku was released on N $ 4,000 bail on Tuesday after he was accused of trading three food magazines. He will appear again on August 18 for plea and trial purposes.
