Deputy director, brother arrested for illegal hunting

2020-06-11

THE Namibian Police arrested a deputy director in the Ministry of Lands at its Gobabis sub-regional office for her role in the alleged illegal hunting of an oryx valued at N$6 000. Mclesia Mbaisa (49) who heads the Division of Land Reform was arrested alongside her brother Marvin Mbaisa (36) and Rudolf Katjuanjo (35) following the illegal hunting of the wild animal at Heath Bell resettlement farm in the Gobabis district. Confirming the incident, Omaheke regional crime investigations coordinator - deputy commissioner Chris Kalimbula said that Katjuanjo and Marvin killed the animal with a rifle on May 4. He said, witnesses informed officials at the Ministry of Tourism, who with the help of the police set up a roadblock.
