Six men were arrested in the vicinity of Kamanjab on Saturday in connection with the illegal hunting of a giraffe.

According to the Namibian police's weekly crime report, the six suspects were arrested at around 19:40 on Saturday with the meat of one giraffe and an unlicensed firearm with which they allegedly hunted the protected animal.

The meat and firearm were seized, as well as the vehicle used during the hunt.

The six will be charged with violating the illegal hunting and possession of a specially protected game, as well as with the Firearms and Ammunition Act and possession of a firearm without a license.
