Man arrested for hunting of protected game at Outjo

Published On: April 26, 2021

A 29-year-old man was arrested for hunting specially protected game at Outjo on Friday, the Namibian Police Force (NamPol) has reported.

In its weekend serious crime report issued Sunday, NamPol said the suspect was arrested after allegedly shooting an impala.

“It is alleged that the suspect also had an unskinned impala carcass in his vehicle valued at N.dollars 4 500,” the report reads.

In a separate incident, a 28-year-old suspect was arrested for stock theft on Friday at Farm Osterode Suid in the Stampriet District.

According to the report, the suspect was arrested after he allegedly entered the complainant’s camp and slaughtered one Dorper sheep valued at N.dollars 3 000 without the owner’s consent.

Meanwhile, three men were arrested for stock theft at the Outjo Municipality Camp on Friday and Saturday.

According to the report, the suspects allegedly stole and slaughtered four sheep valued at N.dollars 8 000 without the owner's consent.

Police investigations continue.
