

23 Juli 2021 | Polizei & Gericht

Acht Festnahmen in einer Woche

13 Wildtierprodukte werden beschlagnahmt

1.

Windhoek (NMH / cr) - Eight suspects were arrested in connection with six wildlife crime cases in the past week. According to the Ministry of Environment's wildlife crime statistics, 13 wildlife products were confiscated.

On July 12, a Namibian with two python skins was arrested. The following day, a Namibian national was arrested in Rundu for being in possession of a pangolin armor.

A Zambian national with four tusks was also arrested in Katima Mulilo on July 15. On the same day, a man with three tusks was arrested in Kahenge, as well as a Namibian in Outjo, because he was in possession of an oryx carcass.

In Outjo, three Namibians were also arrested on July 17th for owning two warthogs.