

Write a letter to the editor

17 November 2021 | Nature & Environment

Men arrested for possession of python skins

1.

Windhoek (cr) - Four new wildlife crime cases were reported last month, with twelve men arrested.

Two men, aged 26 and 37, were arrested last Friday in the village of Nkonke in the Kavango West Region for possessing three python skins. The value is according to the report at N $ 90,000. The suspects were due to appear before the Rundu Municipal Court on Monday.

Two Namibians and two Angolans were also arrested in Oshikango when they were found wearing three pangolin tanks. According to the Environment Ministry's report, the men were arrested on Tuesday last week.

On the same day, four more Namibians were arrested when they were carrying a dead great crayfish, which falls under exotic game in Namibia.

An Angolan and a Namibian were also arrested on the same day with an oryx carcass. According to the report, the men were arrested in Witvlei.