Windhoek (cr) • Last Friday, two suspects, aged 32 and 42, were arrested at the Monte Cristo Shell petrol station in Windhoek after they were found in possession of four elephant tusks during a police operation. According to the Namibian police, the value of the seized items is not yet known. The police investigations are ongoing.

Also the following day, two male suspects, aged 27 and 38, were arrested during a police operation after attempting to sell a pangolin tank worth N$50,000. The suspects have been charged and appeared in court yesterday.
