

firm but fair

Informanté

Five caught for illegal hunting

Maria David

THE police in Otjozondjupa arrested 5 men aged 41, 31, 29, and 33 for illegal hunting of protected animals on Friday.

The suspects were allegedly caught on Friday around 00h00 on D2172 road in Ovitoto, Okahandja District.

They face charges of illegal hunting of game and being found in possession of huntable game.

According to the police weekend report issued on Sunday, the suspects were arrested after being found with half an Oryx game meat at a mini road block and failed to account or produce any permit.

The suspects are expected to appear before Okahandja Magistrate's court on Monday.

Police investigation into the matter continues.