

firm but fair

Informanté

Pensioner caught for killing protected game

Maria David

A 62-year-old pensioner man was arrested for shooting a Duiker and monitor lizard worth N$23 400.

The incident occurred at farm 39 in Mangetti cattle Range, Kavango West.

NamPol spokesperson Inspector Raimbert Muronga said a case of possession of protected game meat (Duikeer and Monitor lizard) has been opened against the suspect.

"It is alleged that the suspect shot the Duiker and monitor lizard with a shotgun without permission," he said.

He added that the carcass of a Duiker 01 and Monitor Lizard was recovered and seized.

Police investigation into the matter continues.