

firm but fair

Informanté

Another arrest for pangolin trading in Kavango West

Maria David

ANOTHER case of dealing in controlled wildlife products has been reported in Kavango West, involving a 29-year-old man who was found with two pangolin skins on Tuesday.

This comes after two men, aged 36 and 44, were arrested for being in possession of a live pangolin in Kakoro village recently.

NamPol spokesperson Inspector Raimbert Muronga said that the 29-year-old suspect was arrested around 13:00 in Nkurenkuru town.

“It is alleged that the suspect was arrested during a police operation and had two pangolin skins,” he said, adding that the skins were valued at N$100,000.

The skins have been confiscated.

Muronga indicated that the suspect had no permit to trade in such products.