

Man held over rhino horn in SA

Front Page | 2012-10-11

A MAN found in possession of a rhino horn was arrested in Namakgale, Limpopo police said yesterday.

Colonel Ronel Otto said the 35-year-old Mozambican man was taken into custody on Tuesday.

The man allegedly had a 'fresh rhino horn' , a rifle, live ammunition, and an axe. He was arrested following a tip-off about a driver transporting rhino poachers to a game reserve in Phalaborwa.

Police caught the driver at a road-block and he led them to the poacher. He was arrested as he made his way out of the bushes. - Nampa-Sapa