

4 RHINO KILLED IN POACHING INCIDENT AT WC GAME RESERVE

A R100,000 reward has been offered to catch those responsible.

Four rhino were killed by poachers at the Inverdoorn private game reserve in the Western Cape on 8 December 2021. Picture: Supplied by Searl Derman.

Rhino Poaching \(https://ewn.co.za/topic/rhino-poaching\) Inverdoorn game reserve \(https://ewn.co.za/topic/inverdoorn-game-reserve\)
Ray White \(https://ewn.co.za/contributors/ray-white\) | ~~44 minutes ago~~ (35 minutes ago)

JOHANNESBURG - Four rhino have been killed at a game reserve just outside of Cape Town.

Management at the Inverdoorn private game reserve said that an anti-poaching unit found the four rhino while on their regular patrols.

One of the four was pregnant.

A fifth rhino was wounded and is recovering.

A R100,000 reward has been offered to catch those responsible.