Six people were arrested after allegedly poaching and killing two warthogs and six porcupines in the Karkloof area, Howick, KZN on Sunday.

Magma Security and Investigations said while their officers were patrolling in the Karkloof area, a suspicious vehicle was observed on a client's property just after 2am, on Sunday morning.

It said that upon stopping the vehicle, the officers found six occupants with six dogs.

"They had poached and killed two warthogs and six porcupines. Knives were found in their possession. Suspects were handed over to Howick SAPS," said Magma Magma Security and Investigations.
