

4 Dangerous Rhino Poachers Nabbed In Livingstone

June 12, 2022

4 DANGEROUS RHINO POACHERS NABBED IN LIVINGSTONE

FOUR dangerous poachers, who have allegedly been hunting rhinos using a rifle fitted with a telescope and silencer in Livingstone's Mosi-Oa Tunya National Park, have been arrested.

The quartet comprises a Namibia, an Angolan and two Zambians. Department of National Parks and Wildlife (DNPW) Public Relations Officer Sakabilo Kalembwe has identified the four as Benjamin Anedal from Angola, Belters Sililo Swenyeho Kambonde from Namibia while the Zambians are Kambonde Ushuka, and Samayiwa Samayiwa.

Mr. Kalembwe says the suspects were found in illegal possession of a .308 W caliber rifle with 12 rounds of ammunition and the firearm is equipped with a telescope and silencer.

“After interrogation, the quartet revealed that they came specifically for rhinos in the park,” Mr. Kalembwe said.

The Bodyguards Of The Most Protected Celebrities

Wanderoam | Sponsored

Read Next Story >

The Bodyguards Of The Most Protected Celebrities

Wanderoam | Sponsored

Read Next Story >

The Bodyguards Of The Most Protected Celebrities

Wanderoam | Sponsored

Read Next Story >

The Bodyguards Of The Most Protected Celebrities

Wanderoam | Sponsored

Read Next Story >

The Bodyguards Of The Most Protected Celebrities
Wanderoam | Sponsored

Read Next Story >