

/ CRIME & COURTS

Duo in court over ivory

 12 NOV, 2021 - 14:11

 0 COMMENTS  1 IMAGES

Two men appeared in court today on allegations of illegally possessing elephant tusks worth US$2 497 they intended to trade in Harare's city centre.

Nkululeko Chuma (40) and Tawenga Dandambira (40) appeared before Harare magistrate Mrs Tafadzwa Miti charged with unlawful possession of unmarked raw ivory.

They were not asked to plead to the charges and were remanded in custody to Monday.

Perfectly pow WB

Power with your purchi electricity at the till. It's

Woermann, Brock & Cc

Miss Anesu Matorofa appeared for the State.

Share This:

More Stories:

Capital Markets gurus honoured

12 NOV, 2021

Cheers for cane farmers as Manjirenji wa...

12 NOV, 2021

Sponsored Links

Classifieds

Online Payments

Electronics

Airtime & Bills

Cars & Parts

Prepaid Electricity

