The three were nabbed following a tip-off on April 4 that they were looking for potential buyers for the ivory.

Detectives set a trap pretending to be potential buyers, leading to their arrest.

Thomas Chanakira represented the State.

In an unrelated case, Tatenda Takawira (31), Luckmore Jonasi (42) and Donald Chikwiramakomo (48) appeared before Harare magistrate, Yeukai Dzuda facing fraud charges involving $878 000.

The complainant in the case is Sogecoa Zimbabwe Private Limited represented by Emmanuel Mukwara, a marketing manager.

The accused persons failed to deliver COVID-19 protective gear after receiving payment from the company. They were reported to the police, and later arrested.

Lynette Gwarisa prosecuted.
