

NEW: Zimbabwean, foreigner nabbed over elephant tusks

Online Reporter

TWO men have been arrested in Bulawayo after they were found in possession of 20,5 kilogrammes of elephant tusks.

The two suspects, Olters Ndlovu (34) and a foreign national, were intercepted after a tip-off.

“Police in Madlambuzi swiftly reacted to a tip-off and arrested Olters Ndlovu (34) and a foreign national for unlawful possession of two elephant tusks weighing 20,5kg.

“Investigations are in progress,” said police in a statement.

Share This:

More Stories:

NEW: Why hotter weather is likely to aff...

NEW: Muhammad Ali in town!

NEW: Stanbic leverages on residential. c...

