Arteta accepts Arsenal need ‘firepower’ in the transfer market

Arsenal manager Mikel Arteta yesterday said Gunners must be in the market to sign the best players to bolster a squad he accepts lacks “firepower”.

Arteta’s men will end the season without a trophy for the fifth consecutive year as injuries to Kai Havertz, Bukayo Saka and Gabriel Jesus and the lack of a prolific striker blunted their challenge for silverware. Arsenal, currently second in the Premier League behind already-crowned champions Liverpool and beaten in the Champions League semifinals by Paris Saint-Germain, will round off another frustrating season, away to relegated Southampton on Sunday.

Real Madrid’s Rodrygo is the latest star forward to be linked with a move to the Emirates after links to Newcastle’s Alexander Isak and Viktor Gyokeres of Sporting Lisbon. “If you want to win major trophies, you have to be the best in the market, no? The teams that win always have the best players,” said Arteta.

“I wouldn’t like to name a player, but there is pride because we have brought the club into a position that next season people are saying: ‘You have to win a major trophy.’ And that means that everybody believes, and that we are an elite team in this country and in Europe. The biggest statement is that Arsenal is there.”

The Spaniard added: “What is clear with the amount of injuries that we had in the frontline is that we need a goal threat, and we need firepower. Understanding that the context can change tomorrow, we cannot rely just on the numbers that we had before. “We have to add goals, creativity, and we have to add numbers, and that will be in different positions.”

Arteta also said he wanted 31-year-old midfielder Thomas Partey to sign a new Arsenal contract, following an impressive campaign. -SuperSport

Fernandes offers to leave United to help club rebuild

Sacrifice... Bruno Fernandes has offered to leave Manchester United.

Bruno Fernandes has offered to leave Manchester United if the club need to cash in on him in order to rebuild after the heartbreak of their Europa League final defeat by Tottenham.

United lost 1-0 in Bilbao on Wednesday courtesy of a Brennan Johnson goal, compounding a miserable season for the club.

Manager Ruben Amorim said after the defeat that if the club no longer wanted him, he would quit “without any conversation about compensation”.

Now, his captain, 30, has followed suit, aware of United’s need for an overhaul of the playing staff, despite financial constraints.

“I have always been honest. I’ve always said I will be here until the club says to me that it’s time to go,” said Fernandes.

“I’m eager to do more, to be able to bring the club to the great days. On the day that the club thinks that I’m too much or it’s time to part ways, football is like this, you never know it.

“But I’ve always said it and I keep my word in the same way. If the club thinks it’s time to part ways because they want to do some cashing in or whatever, it is what it is and football sometimes is like this.”

Fernandes has been United’s standout player this season, but failed to make an impact against Spurs at the San Mames stadium.

‘VERY SAD DAY’

He said the defeat was a crushing blow.

“We wanted to win more than anything in this final,” he said. “It’s a very sad day because we’ve done some very good things in this competition until today.

“But today (Wednesday) was the day that mattered, the most important day of the competition. It was the day we could have been in the history of the Europa League, but it’s not like that. And football is cruel, and it’s been our turn to lose.”
