Capricorn Eagles to face Scotland today

Hilma Nalupe

THE Capricorn Eagles, Namibia's women's cricket team, is currently in Bangkok, Thailand, for the ICC Women's Emerging Nations Trophy tournament.

The tournament began on 20 November and will end on 1 December. It features eight associate member teams and aims to bridge the gap towards major tournaments such as the ICC Women's T20 World Cup.

Namibia lost by eight wickets to Tanzania last Thursday, followed by a 12-run win over Uganda on Friday. The Eagles then faced the hosting nation, Thailand, on Sunday, where they lost by 27 runs. The Capricorn Eagles will face Scotland today, in their fourth match of the tournament.

Suren wins bronze at CAC African Champs

Namibian cyclist, Roger Suren, continued his impressive form this season, securing a bronze medal at the 2025 African Cycling Confederation (CAC) Road Cycling African Championships held in Kwaile, Kenya, on Sunday.

The championships, staged from 19 to 23 November 2025, brought together riders across multiple categories, junior, under-23, and elite, both women and men, who competed in the road race, mixed team time trial relay, and individual time trial.

Distances varied by category, with women racing shorter courses than men, and junior riders tackling shorter routes than their under-23 counterparts.

Participants were selected by their respective national federations, with champions earning the right to wear the prestigious African Champions jersey in competition the following year.

Suren, who made history in September this year by becoming the first Namibian and African to win a silver medal in the Junior Men's Cross Country Olympic (XCO) race at the UCI MTB World Championships in Valais, Switzerland, once again demonstrated remarkable grit and composure.

The Namibian junior rider outlasted 54 competitors to claim third place in the 107.6 kilometre (km) junior men's road race.

The event was won by Natan Tesfalem of Eritrea, with Uganda's Paul Miro taking silver. Tesfalem crossed the line in a time of 2 hours, 44 minutes and 19 seconds (02:44:19), with Suren just one minute and 38 seconds behind him. -Nampa

'We can thrill the fans'

... Coach Wück hopes Germany lands Euro 2029

Germany would be a great host of the women's Euro 2029 tournament, national team coach Christian Wück has said ahead of last week's decision by the ruling body UEFA.

"We have the stadiums, we have the spectators. We can thrill the fans with our game, and I hope it stays like this for a long time," Wück said between his team's two Nations League final legs against Spain.

UEFA's executive committee will select the host on Wednesday's meeting. The other candidates are Poland and a joint bid from Denmark and Sweden.

Wück said he hoped that UEFA had taken notice of the "phenomenal" atmosphere at Germany's last home games and added that landing the hosting rights would mean a lot for the whole of women's football in Germany. National team full back Franziska Kett said that playing a home tournament is "the dream of every player."

"We have the best conditions in Germany. We have nice stadiums, we have big stadiums and many spectators," Kett said. Germany aims to stage the Euros in the eight cities of Cologne, Dortmund, Düsseldorf, Frankfurt, Hanover, Leipzig, Munich and Wolfsburg.

Germany hosted the Euros in 1989 as a Final Four event and again in 2001 when eight teams played. The tournament now features 16 teams.

Spain's Bonmati breaks broken leg in training

Out: Ballon d'Or winner Aitana Bonmati has been ruled out of Spain's Nations League final second leg. Photo: Catalan News

Ballon d'Or winner Aitana Bonmati has been ruled out of Spain's Nations League final second leg at home to Germany after breaking her leg in training.

The Barcelona midfielder fell awkwardly during a session on Sunday, and tests have revealed a fractured fibula.

"Aitana Bonmati finished the morning session at the Ciudad del Fútbol in Las Rozas in pain after a bad landing in an accidental action," said a Spanish Football Federation statement.

"Following tests carried out by the medical services of the Royal Spanish Football Federation on Sunday, she has been diagnosed with a fracture in her left fibula. The player will return to Barcelona and re-join her club to begin her recovery period." The statement added.

The Nations League Champion's Spain host Germany on Tuesday after the first game finished goalless.

Henriksen's job not guaranteed

Mainz sporting director Niko Bungert has left the future of coach Bo Henriksen open after they dropped to the bottom of the Bundesliga table on Sunday.

The 4-0 loss at Freiburg extended their winless league run to eight games. Mainz have just six points from 12 matches and only one win.

"We will discuss the situation in due course and not announce anything now. Of course, it's clear that after such a game and with our current league position, the situation is extremely unsatisfactory, and we will question every area and see how we proceed," Bungert told DAZN. "We were pretty much without a chance from the first minute.

We set out to turn things around. In the end it is a fully deserved 4-0 win for Freiburg and, in our current state, a fully deserved last place for us," Bungert added.

Henriksen, who last term led Mainz into the Conference League for this season, assumes that he will also be in charge next Friday against Borussia Mönchengladbach.

"I think so," said the Dane, who still "has a good feeling with the team, with the players."

He added that "We have to get better.

All of us, not just the players, me too, the whole club."
