

15 rhinos poached this year

Fifteen rhinos and one elephant have been poached this year.

This was confirmed by the tourism ministry today.

The ministry said that as part of their bi-annual report on wildlife crime and law enforcement, they will issue a detailed statement on the matter in June, including updates on poached animals, suspects arrested, items confiscated, and general crime prevention strategies put in place.